

Who is the Cedar Great American Stampede Rodeo Queen & Princess?

The Cedar Lions Rodeo Queen and Princess symbolize young women of Southern Utah who wish to further promote the sport of rodeo, and in so doing, promotes the great western way of life. She is also the ideal All-American Cowgirl and is the young woman who will represent rodeo as she travels to the local and nearby county events.

While spreading goodwill for her community and the city she is representing, the Cedar Lions rodeo Queen and Princess are garnering the richest experience of her life and laying the foundation for her future. The young woman that wants to be a leader in her community and further promote our western way of life is the girl we are looking for within our community. She is a person who loves horses, rodeo and all that they represent. She is a role model to exemplify to the youth of our surrounding communities what can be accomplished in the western environment.

Cedar Lions Rodeo Queen and Princess serve as an ambassador of rodeo to the general public, portraying excellence in sportsmanship, high moral and ethical character, and reflects careful and humane treatment of animals. She must understand the sport of rodeo and the people that enjoy rodeo as a professional sport. She is expected to act, speak, and dress according to the prestige the title deserves at all times during her reign.

Are you the one we are looking for?
